

Bylaw 2024-01

Civic Addressing Bylaw

The Council of the Town of Eston in the Province of Saskatchewan enacts as follows:

Purpose

A BYLAW TO PROVIDE FOR THE NUMBERING OF HOUSES AND OTHER BUILDINGS

Civic addresses help emergency response personnel, such as police, fire and ambulance, to locate a home or business quickly. Addresses also assist other parties such as service or delivery companies to locate a property.

1. This bylaw shall be referred to as the “Civic Addressing Bylaw.”
2. A uniform system of numbering houses and other buildings is hereby established and is shown on the tax roll.
3. A separate number shall be assigned for each building.
4. Each house or building shall bear the number assigned to the frontage on which the front entrance is situated.
5. Notwithstanding section 4 of this bylaw, upon request of the owner of a property situated on a corner, the number assigned may be specific to the flankage.
6. Numerals indicating the official number of each house or building, or each front entrance shall be posted in a manner as to be visible from the street on which the property is located.
7. Anyone found to violate the regulations outlined in this bylaw shall be deemed to have committed an offense and, once convicted, shall be subject to the following consequences: They will be required to pay a fine of $150, which will be allocated towards the procurement of house numbers.
8. This bylaw shall come into effect on the day of its final passing.
9. Bylaw No. 77-71 is hereby repealed on the passing of this bylaw 2024-01
